

Stars of the Week

Early Years

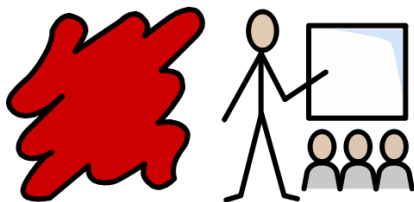

Kolton for fantastic talking and engagement during our Drama Circle. Kolton interacted with the puppets and kept saying “more.” Kolton, you were amazing!

Green Class

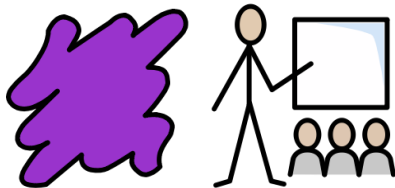

Kayden for fantastic independence during phonics. Kayden remembered 4 of his 5 first sounds. Well done!

Another pupil in Green Class for fantastic engagement and sustained attention. Well done!

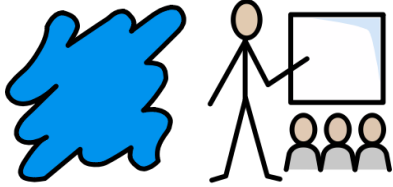

Red Class

Codie for becoming more confident with using his walker and moving around school.

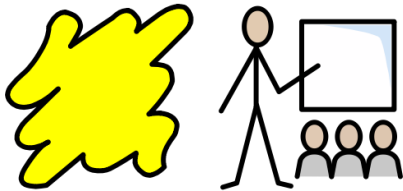

Purple Class

Libby-May for making new friends, engaging and exploring together.

Blue Class

Will for being brave in his first week in Blue Class and confidently using his communication to share choices and responses, making a fantastic first impression.

Yellow Class

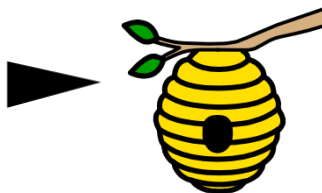

Shayla for Thursday's brilliant engagement. Shayla looked at everything in front of her and made excellent eye contact all day!

The Arc

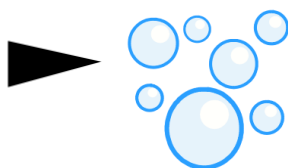

A Side: Esme for being engaged and happy during her music session.

B Side: Kimberley for working on her head control.

The Hive

June for overcoming a fear on the swing.

The Hub

Kyle for engaging well with adults and enjoying our Body Awareness session.
